TAPA EMEA – RESILIENCE@RISK Conference – Amsterdam – 14 & 15 June 2023

Exhibitors and Sponsors' Code of Conduct for TAPA EMEA events

Since its foundation in 1999, TAPA EMEA has become an influential and well-respected organization of manufacturers of high value goods, their distributors, and their transport service providers. As time has progressed, TAPA EMEA has welcomed members from other sectors including insurance, LEA and security service providers. In addition, TAPA EMEA has welcomed support from exhibitors and sponsors at their conferences and other events. TAPA EMEA will accept, under the rules mentioned below, its members and companies that are supply chain security service providers, as exhibitors and or sponsors.

Rules for Exhibitors and Sponsors

1. The exhibitor/sponsor must be a member of TAPA EMEA or a company who specializes in supply chain security and makes this specialty their major business objective.
2. The exhibitor/sponsor must sign the appropriate contract and pay any monies due to TAPA EMEA prior to the date of the event.
3. All exhibition space or sponsorship is offered subject to availability.
4. No exhibitors/sponsors are permitted to sell their products or services in TAPA EMEA meetings (unless directly approached by TAPA members or guests). All sales activities shall be restricted to the designated exhibition, networking lunch and networking break areas.
5. No TAPA EMEA members' email addresses shall be used for any commercial activities unless requested by the member.
6. TAPA EMEA reserves the right to refuse applications from potential exhibitors/sponsors without giving any reason for their refusal.
